

Study Abroad with CASA Granada

Studying at CASA Granada

CASA Granada offers academic programs for students at every level of Spanish language proficiency – from beginners to bilinguals – and from every concentration!

- Intensive Spanish Language Program
- Spanish Language & Culture Program
- Hispanic Studies Program
- University Studies Program
- Translation Studies Program

Students enroll at the University of Granada, consistently ranked among the top three research universities in Spain, and/or at the University's Modern Language Center, a reference for Spanish language teaching on an international scale. In addition to learning or improving their Spanish skills, CASA students have the opportunity to:

- Examine Granada's Islamic tangible past & vibrant present
- Understand the lasting impact of Franco's Dictatorship & the Spanish Civil War
- Study another foreign language such as Chinese, Arabic or French
- Engage in a STEM research internship at a cutting-edge lab on the Health Sciences Technological Park campus
- Volunteer at a local school or non-profit organization

Living in Granada

The five things past CASA students have loved most about living in Granada (beyond the academics!) are:

- It's a small, walkable city with a huge college student population. (It's the #1 destination for Erasmus students!)
- The low cost of living, affordable cultural events and free tapas.
- The proximity of nature and easy access to hiking trails and the Sierra Nevada.
- The slower rhythm of life in Andalucía and "no pasa nada" philosophy.
- Having a CASA away from home – the team, the center and the trips together!
